PEACE DOVE LOOSED IN BALKANS

Truce For Negotiations to End War Said to Have Been Agreed On

MEANTIME ADVANCE OF ALLIES CONTINUES

Said They Will Easily Be Able to Take Sofia Unless Peace Intervenes

LONDON, July 16.—Official announcement is made in Belgrade dispatches that a truce will probably be agreed upon in the Balkan war, pending negotiations for peace terms. It is further reported that Serbia will probably continue her maneuvers for position in order to continue an advance in the event of non-acceptance of the proposed terms by Bulgaria. Unofficial dispatches from Vienna state that the Serb line is apparently being forced nearer the Bulgarian frontier. The Greeks are making a corresponding advance along that portion of the line entrusted to them. If further battles occur they are certain to be on Bulgarian soil. It is freely predicted that the allies will be able to advance to Sofia if peace does not intervene. The Bulgarian defense is generally believed to have entirely crumbled.

THREE KILLED IN TERRIFIC STORMS AT MINNEAPOLIS

MINNEAPOLIS, July 16.—Three are dead in the most severe electrical storm experienced here this summer. The dead are: Mrs. Ella Henry, Philip Raabe and David Watson. Reports circulated this morning that eleven were killed, were unfounded. Rain fell in torrents during a dazzling electrical display. Three-quarters of an inch fell in fifteen minutes. Hundreds of basements were flooded, with considerable property damage.

MISFORTUNES END HYDROPLANE RACE

Affair Called Off When Only Three Contestants Remained;
Martin Coming Home

CHICAGO, July 16.—With the decision last night of the promoters of the 300-mile reliability Chicago-to-Detroit airplane race to call it off because of the many misfortunes, the three remaining contestants began making plans of their own. The Detroit Aero Club officials wired Martin an offer of expenses, and a purse to give an exhibition there Thursday. Martin probably will accept. He will then return to Los Angeles and give several exhibitions. Francis packed up his craft last night at Pentwater and made arrangements to keep several exhibition dates he has made. Meanwhile Beckwith Havens and his employer-passenger, J. B. Verplanck, were nearly 300 miles away, headed for Mackinac Island. When they learned of the outcome of the conference Mr. Verplanck decided that as he and Havens were having a fine time they would continue on to Detroit for a pleasure trip, after which they intend to continue along the lakes over Erie to the St. Lawrence and thence to the mouth of the river and the ocean.

Police Seek Clue To Jewel Robbery

LOS ANGELES, July 16.—After a twelve-hour search the police have been unable to locate Elmer Clayton, who is wanted to answer questions regarding an assault on and robbery of diamonds worth $1000 from C. G. Carson, a jeweler. Mrs. Ida Morrison, in whose company Clayton was seen, is detained at the police station. Carson is recovering.

LONDON, July 16.—Premier Asquith has appointed Robert Bridges, a retired hospital surgeon, as poet laureate.

HEAVY DEATH TOLL IN WAR ON OPIUM

SHANGHAI, China, July 16.—Statistics published here today by the government show that 600 poppy planters and their employees have been killed in pitched battle with soldiers in the past twelve months as a result of the new republican government's energetic efforts to eradicate the opium curse. In the report mention was made of the stand taken by President Wilson and his cabinet in refusing to support the demands of American bankers or traders in China for reimbursement on account of the destruction by the government of China of opium and poppy crops on which they held liens. The report declares that the American administration's action has done wonders in strengthening the crusade against the opium evil.

SECRETARY REDFIELD OFF FOR ALASKA

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Secretary of Commerce Redfield today is on his way west enroute to the Pribiloff Islands and Alaska, where he is to make an extensive tour and inspection of immigration stations along the Canadian boundary line. Secretary Redfield will thoroughly familiarize himself with the fur and sealing industries, both of which are under the jurisdiction of his department. The secretary will do his traveling by water on one of the Pacific coast revenue cutters. Secretary Redfield expects to return to the east by way of Chicago about the middle of August.

HERE'S A BIG MONEY MAKING OPPORTUNITY IN PROPORTION TO THE CAPITAL EMPLOYED

The great bargain time of the year—or, rather, the second great bargain time of the year—is at hand. The January "Clearance Sales" come first; then the July "Clearance Sales."

These sales are good business, both for the merchants and the general public. The merchants clean up their stocks and make room for new goods and get money with which to discount their bills. The people get genuine bargains.

This is a good time for people all over Orange County to come to the county seat and lay in a supply of goods—clothing, dry goods, druggist's sundries, almost everything can be bought here during the next ten days or two weeks at discounts ranging from ten per cent to fifty per cent, the average cut being about twenty-five per cent.

The family that does not improve the opportunity thus offered is not thrifty. It is extravagant not to attend these sales. It pays to borrow money to buy goods at the prices offered.

NO CHARGE YET A LIVELY SCRAP AGAINST HIM HERE OVER CURVE LIKELY

Edward M. McKinsey Leaves a Bunch of Debts But Locally
Seems Clear of the Law

NOTE ONLY HELD BY LUTZ COMPANY

Several Notes Scattered Around
Over the City Reminder of His Dealings

As yet no warrant has been issued in Santa Ana for the arrest of Edward McKinsey, the East Washington avenue man who left this city a week ago. Officers are still looking into the numerous transactions made by McKinsey, and it is possible that a criminal charge will be brought later. The horses sold by McKinsey in Los Angeles have been returned here by C. M. McCain who received $200 from McKinsey for them and a lease note for the remainder. Under that note the ownership had not passed to McKinsey, and the sale of the stock was a criminal offense, committed in Los Angeles county.

It would be hard to estimate the amount of bad debts left behind by McKinsey. He seems to have stung a good many of those whose confidence he held. Mrs. Henry Neill is on notes for about $7000, that she probably will have to pay. A local contractor is said to have a $400 note that is now considered valueless. Debts from $5 to $50 are quite numerous.

One of the local officers says he thinks that $2000 would not cover the liabilities that McKinsey has left to take care of himself.

The second-hand automobile sold by the Wm. F. Lutz Co. to McKinsey was not on a lease note, so that the ownership passed to McKinsey, and even should he sell the machine, which it is presumed he did, the debt would be one for civil suit and not for criminal action.

CANADIAN BANDIT STILL AT LARGE

BELLINGHAM, Wash., July 16.—The unnamed Canadian bandit who has eluded scores of pursuers since, with a companion, he robbed a bank messenger near Nanaimo, B. C., July 5, escaped the cordon again today. He was last seen plunging into the thick timber at the south end of Shaw Island. Canadian and American officers are uncertain whether he is still on the island or has escaped to the other side and thence to the mainland. The man is wounded in the shoulder. The last words of the bandit on disappearing were a shouted warning to his pursuers that he will kill the first man attempting to take him, and all who aid. He says he is on the way to his former home in Germany, and is determined to get there or forfeit his own life and the lives of any trying to interfere.

Orange Committee of Eight to Try to Persuade Associated Chambers

SAY STANDARD CARS NEED LONG CURVE

S. J. Jackman Makes His Position Clear in Communication Received Today

There is evidently going to be a right royal battle at the special meeting of the Associated Chambers of Commerce, which will be held at the city hall Tuesday, 7:30 p. m. over the protest of the Associated Chambers of Commerce against the proposed long curve off North Main street to the right-of-way of the Orange line. Orange is going to have a committee of eight on hand to endeavor to show the Associated Chambers that the protest is a mistake.

The Orange people are anxious to get the matter settled at once, and have secured a special meeting of the Associated Chambers to hear the case. Secretary Metzgar sent out notices today.

The matter was brought up by S. J. Jackman of Santa Ana before the Associated Chambers at its last meeting, and was referred to the transportation committee, consisting of A. A. Mills of Anaheim, S. M. Davis of Santa Ana and W. A. Griffith of Huntington Beach, with power to act. This committee decided to enter a protest to the State Railroad Commission, and this protest was entered, signed by W. A. Zimmerman and J. C. Metzgar, president and secretary of the Associated Chambers.

The next heard of the matter was when the Orange right-of-way committee was informed by Paul Shoup, president of the P. E., that work on the Orange line was being held back by the protest. The committee from Orange went to Los Angeles and convinced that the long curve at that point is necessary. On the report of this committee Orange has started out upon a campaign to get the Associated Chambers to withdraw its objections. Last night at Orange there was a meeting of the right-of-way committee, consisting of D. C. Drake, F. L. Ainsworth and N. T. Edwards, with the directors of the Orange Commercial Club and the Orange Merchants & Manufacturers' Association. The result of the meeting was the appointment of a committee of eight to go before the Associated Chambers and ask the withdrawal of the protest. This request is to be presented to the Associated Chambers as a whole, though the matter may be taken up with the transportation committee before that time. On the committee are the three members of the right-of-way committee, L. M. Hartwick, P. W. Ehlén, U. D. Rhoades, Fred Struck and W. O. Hart.

Drake explained at the meeting that the ten per cent curve planned for that turn off North Main street is the least curve that can be used practically for operating standard trains such as the P. E. proposes to run over the track when Orange is joined to the Richfield line, and that a short curve such as was proposed by S. J. Jackman of Santa Ana would not do for standard trains.

Jackman's argument was "that a long curve off the street would be dangerous, but the duty of every American citizen is to cry out against any wrong that he believes is attempted against the rights and interests of the general public, and not to do so to be an act of cowardice."

"The protest referred to was made in good faith and in the interests of safety of the traveling public, and NOT as the Orange News would have believed, as the 'unfortunate activities of one Santa Ana citizen.'"

"It would require too much space to cite all of the reasons why this line should not be built on the present survey, but I will give enough to convince any unprejudiced mind."

"The long curve referred to begins 94 feet north of the north city limits of Santa Ana in the middle of Main street (the street at this point is 60 feet wide), running thence north-east into Dr. Medlock's walnut orchard on a ten degree curve. This means from the point of beginning of this curve in the middle of said street to the point where it leaves on the east side of same, an angled curve 250.74 feet long, thus forming what must be a death-trap to those persons traveling north on this street, especially so after the greatly increased traffic over this now at times congested street, when the State Highway is opened over it."

"This curve would enable the company to operate its cars at full speed around this corner. Should they be compelled to shorten this curve, that of itself would require them to 'slow up' their cars to make the turn. This of itself would act as a safeguard to the public. The hundreds of accidents, where large numbers of people have been killed by the engines of their automobiles 'going dead' while crossing railroad tracks at right angles, are too fresh in the minds of the public to need specific mention. Hence, how much the greater danger in crossing a long curve of the kind it is proposed to build at this point."

"Now as to the protest itself; all that was asked was that the State Railroad Commission would require the Pacific Electric to modify this curve so as to correspond with other curves on public highways along this line. Is there anything unfair or unjust in such a demand? The Associated Chambers of Orange County have done themselves proud in endorsing this protest and taking the initiative in filing suit before the State Railroad Commission to compel the Pacific Electric to modify this curve, thus making it safe for the traveling public."

ANOTHER REPLY IN JAPANESE CONTROVERSY

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Secretary Bryan announced today that the American reply to the latest Japanese rejoinder in regard to the California anti-land controversy will be presented to Ambassador Chinda tonight or tomorrow. It is supposed to refer to the legal phases of the question.

AMBASSADOR WILSON CALLED TO CAPITAL

Situation in Mexico Imbroglio Seems to Have Reached Crisis—Foreign Powers Have Demanded
Action by U. S.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Pursuant to the President's instructions, Secretary Bryan today cabled Ambassador Wilson at Mexico City to come to Washington immediately. The purpose is to discuss the situation in Mexico. It is stated that the president desires detailed first hand reports.

It is generally believed that the administration's hope to postpone final action on the Mexican situation until after the fall elections has been destroyed as the result of informal representations by Great Britain. It is understood the British foreign office has practically served notice that the United States must guarantee peace in Mexico under the Monroe doctrine. Other European nations are expected to follow.

America is practically the only nation failing to recognize the Huerta regime. The fact that the administration is not recognized makes it impossible for America effectively to protest against indignities to Americans. Consular reports indicate that the general anti-American sentiment in Mexico is growing.

WASHINGTON FEARS CRISIS IS AT HAND

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Impressive demonstration of the probability that President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan will be unable longer to ignore the situation in Mexico as a grave and pressing international problem which the United States, as the responsible nation in the western hemisphere, must squarely face, was given in Washington yesterday. Intervention is a possibility being seriously discussed.

It was disclosed that all the foreign ministers in Mexico City recently drew up an identical note which they dispatched to their governments, solemnly declaring that the United States, by its stubborn refusal to recognize the Mexican government, is directly contributing to the increasing disorder in that country. The identical note urged that the other nations call upon Washington either to recognize the Huerta government or undertake the task of restoring order in Mexico. It further was disclosed today that the diplomatic representative of at least one European power has called on Secretary Bryan and presented practically the proposition urged by the diplomatic corps in Mexico City. Mr. Bryan was requested kindly to inform this government what the United States intends to do, if anything, in regard to the international nuisance existing in what is virtually its back yard.

It has become known definitely that every great foreign office in Europe condemns the failure of the United States to do anything directly or indirectly to relieve the state of affairs in Mexico. The European governments are "extremely annoyed," as one ambassador expresses it, at what seems to them the inexplicable attitude of the Wilson administration.

point where it leaves on the east side of same, an angled curve 250.74 feet long, thus forming what must be a death-trap to those persons traveling north on this street, especially so after the greatly increased traffic over this now at times congested street, when the State Highway is opened over it.

toward Mexico. The increase of the anti-Americanism in Mexico has really been welcomed by the European governments, in the hope that it will goad the United States into doing something.

Great Britain lost no time in recognizing the Huerta government, although she knew at the time that it would embarrass the administration and the State Department, Mr. Knox having refused point blank to arbitrate the Panama Canal tolls issue with Great Britain.

Secretary Bryan declines to say who is making this demand upon the United States. All the facts point, however, to England, in conjunction, of course, with Japan, her ally.

Mr. Bryan was asked definitely if there would be any change in the policy of the United States by reason of the scare which had fallen on the cabinet today. He declined to answer except to say that the administration would not announce any of its policies until it had agreed upon them and could present them in due form.

It is known that the administration officials have been continually opposed to recognition of the Huerta government until elections were held, and it has been expected that any future declaration to the foreign powers would be along the lines of the Latin American statement made by President Wilson soon after he took office.

CENSORSHIP PLACED ON MEXICAN NEWS

MEXICO CITY, July 16.—All foreign newspaper correspondents were called before Gen. Samuel Garcia Cuellar governor of the federal district, today, and were warned against sending out anti-government news.

The offenders, according to the governor, will be dealt with severely. It is rumored that a censor will be put on the cable tomorrow.

The resignation of E. N. Brown, president of the National Lines, was accepted. He leaves tomorrow for Vera Cruz. His successor has not been named. The financial condition of the road is rumored to be bad.

The men charged with a plot to assassinate Huerta, Diaz and Blanquez have been put in the army in Morelos.

Says Conditions Alarming

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Oscar Brandt, one of the richest men in Mexico, conferred with the President this morning. It is understood he declared that conditions are alarming. After this conference Secretary Bryan issued a statement that Ambassador Wilson had been summoned to Washington. He refused to comment on the persistent report that Germany has formally demanded American action.

Battle at Hermanos

EAGLE PASS, Tex., July 16.—General Mass, at the head of 3000 Mexican federalists, is battling an equal force of constitutionalists at Hermanos, a hundred miles south of here. The battle began last night and was resumed at daybreak. Refugees are arriving on every train.

WRECK JUROR MAKES MINORITY REPORT

Arraigns Railroad Company
and Says Inquest Was Not Satisfactory

LOS ANGELES, July 16.—G. Mills, the coroner's juror who refused to sign the majority report on the Venice Short Line accident of Sunday, returned a minority report today, in which, while agreeing with the majority in exonerating Motorman Foster and laying the blame on the Pacific Electric, he flayed the company for its alleged antiquated signaling methods, and declared the inquest superficial. He declared "no view of the scene of the accident was had; no inspection or examination of the mechanism of the colliding trains was attempted. Few witnesses, excluding those identifying the dead were examined. No high official of the railroad was called, and the coroner had no person representing the state present to examine witnesses."

Regarding the inquest Mills also said "the inquest was superficial in the extreme. It did not measure up to what the public had a right to expect and to the seriousness of the situation growing out of so great a loss of life."

Mills declared the main contributing cause was the failure to adopt a signal system that could be "fool proof." He blamed the conductor of the last standing car for failure to go back far enough to signal.

REPUTATIONS FLAYED BY MULHALL

Produces More Letters Implicating Many Public Men in Lobby Work

LATE VICE-PRESIDENT AMONG THOSE ASSAILED

Says Manufacturers' Association Was Ruthless in War
on Labor Measures

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Colonel Mulhall resumed the stand this morning in the Senate lobby investigation. Additional letters were introduced, but few were read. Three thousand letters remain to be examined. The early examination was perfunctory.

Mulhall later identified correspondence purporting to show that the late Vice President Sherman, while chairman of the National Republican Congressional Committee, assisted in the defeat of several congressmen whom the National Association of Manufacturers disliked, and further showed that Mulhall operated in various sections of the country under Sherman's orders.

Mulhall testified that the association was "unscrupulously" in defeating bills endorsed by labor. He said several labor leaders in his employ had accepted money to betray their comrades. He promised to produce letters disclosing their identity.

Mulhall attacked the national council of industrial organizations formed within the manufacturers' association. He said this organization was affiliated with 240 bodies; that it spent from $500,000 to $1,000,000 annually in political work. He identified letters telling of the difficulty the National Association of Manufacturers experienced in raising funds for the 1908 Indiana campaign.

Mulhall declared that he wrote Secretary Schwaner of the association as follows: "If there is any danger of class legislation at Washington get into touch with Senator Emery. If necessary have Emery see the senator. Watson says speaker Cannon will receive Emery any time and he can talk fully and freely with the speaker."

Mulhall stated that he hired a union boiler-maker named Welch to keep him posted on what was going on in labor circles, especially the mine workers' union.

In return for subscriptions made to the furnishing fund the contributors receive certificates exchangeable for service equal to the respective appropriation.

It is expected Schrank will be one of forty prisoners to be transferred to a new department of the prison.

HERE'S A CHANCE TO USE YOUR EYES AND BRAINS AND EARN $1

In the big full-page advertisement of the Crookshank-Beatty Company, which appeared in this paper yesterday and in colored posters now being distributed throughout the county, there are three errors. The Register will pay $1.00 in cash to the first person who points out these three errors in writing. One of the errors is the use of a wrong word. Another is a typographical error—that is the use of wrong letters or the misplacement of letters, so as to make a freak out of a word and render it meaningless. The third error is in figures (prices) producing a palpably disproportionate effect. Send your answers to the Register.

CLERK NAMES HIS DEPUTIES

Backs and Hitchcock to Be in the Courts and Miss Meyer in the Office

Several Other Deputyships Created by New Act Have Not Been Announced

On August 10 the county officials will begin getting their pay under the new county government act. In several of the offices no material change will be found necessary. In at least three of the offices new deputies can that day begin service.

The new act provides for new deputies in the sheriff's office. Today County Clerk Williams made announcement of the appointments that will be made by him.

Joseph M. Backs, Santa Ana, present county deputy, will continue as court deputy, his appointment being to Department No. 1. A. L. Hitchcock of Orange will be appointed as clerk in the new department, No. 2. Miss Myrtle Meyer of Santa Ana will be appointed office deputy.

At present the law provides for but one deputyship, that held by Backs, and Miss Meyer is employed by the county clerk as stenographer, out of the lump salary sum. By the new act Williams is put on a flat salary basis of $2400 a year, and he is provided with two court clerks and an office deputy. The only addition made to the office force then will be Hitchcock. Hitchcock is an expert book-keeper, and at present is engaged in experting the county books for the Board of Supervisors. Last winter he experted the books of Inyo county.

CONSTABLE HEARD IS CALLED UPON TO PREVENT ELOPEMENT

Constable Frank Heard was called in this morning to prevent an elopement. An anxious Mexican who lives at the corner of Stafford and D streets came to Heard's house and told him that another Mexican from Los Angeles was trying to persuade the aforesaid anxious Mexican's wife to run away. He wanted Heard to tell the bad man to go away.

Heard went to the place, and heard the story out. The anxious Mexican said he had not had a talk with the Los Angeles fellow but once. That was this morning when he began to express his desire that the bad Mexican go away and quit trying to get the pretty woman to elope. The bad Mexican drew out a huge knife in a careless kind of way and began whittling a stick. That was when the anxious Mexican made a run for Heard's house. He did not like the looks of the knife.

Heard could not find the bad hombre. He talked to the woman, told her what a mistake she would make and gave her all the fatherly and official advice he could think of. That was about all he could do. It remains to be seen whether or not the elopement that the anxious Mexican believes has been planned will be pulled off according to schedule.

SURPLUS FOR DEVELOPMENT

Olinda Land Co. Gives Dividend But Saves Out Money For Drilling

Los Angeles Times: The Olinda Land Company, operating in the Fullerton field, has passed its quarterly dividend of 3/4 per cent per share. The stock has been generally weak lately, and it was rumored that the passing of the dividend was likely.

In a letter to stockholders from M. Sutherland, secretary of the Olinda, the following is stated regarding the passing of the dividend: "The purpose of this action is to enable the company to apply its surplus revenue to development work now in progress. The company has now in course of drilling four wells, beside two crews engaged upon old wells, and the expense of this extensive development work is so great that it was deemed advisable to use the company's income in that work rather than in payment of dividends."

"Well No. 11 has this month been put on the pump with every promise of a normal production of about 200 barrels per day; Nos. 9 and 10 are in oil sand, and should be completed in the near future, but Nos. 12 and 13 in all probability will not be brought in before the end of the year."

The Olinda has some 2,000,000 shares issued, and therefore the passing of the dividend means a saving of probably $15,000 for this quarter. The dividend was raised from 1/2 to 3/4 cent per share about this time last year.

The company derives a considerable portion of its revenue from royalties on leases of the Puente and West Coast oil companies.

BARRY SAYS THAT MULHALL WANTED VAUDEVILLE JOB

NEW YORK, July 16.—Richard Barry, the magazine writer, made public last night a statement in which he characterized as false much of the testimony given on Monday by M. M. Mulhall, former lobbyist of the National Association of Manufacturers, before the United States senate committee. Mr. Barry, who acted for Mulhall in the sale of letters to a newspaper and has since brought suit for $5000 in the supreme court as his share of the purchase price, refers to the ex-lobbyist as a man whose chief function in life is the demonstration that he is without honor.

In addition to his formal statement Mr. Barry said that he had since learned Mulhall was aggrieved because he (Barry) had failed to make good a suggestion that he might be able to obtain Mulhall a job on a roof garden at $1000 a week. Mulhall had expressed considerable anxiety as to his fate after he had become responsible for the expose. It was then, according to Mr. Barry, that he told Mulhall jokingly that he would be a much talked of man; that he would get more publicity for a few weeks than the President of the United States could command and would not have any trouble going on the stage.

PANAMANIAN GOVERNMENT AIMS TO OUST THE CHINESE

Laws Recently Passed Put Unbearable Taxes on All Mongolians—Appeal Made to United States

PANAMA, July 16.—The Chinese situation which has arisen in this republic rivals the Japanese question of California and is quite likely to involve the United States more or less seriously before it is settled. This is the belief today of Panama government officials.

New laws, directed against the Chinese residents of Panama, recently passed, together with official decrees issued by President Perras, will practically legislate the Chinese out of this section of Central America, a spot where they have been steadily growing in numbers for many years. Failing to get any satisfaction from the Panamanian government the Chinese government has appealed to Washington for help and holds that the United States must see that the Chinese residents of Panama are given commercial protection.

The new laws come pretty close to taxing anything and everything a Chinaman in Panama does. The Chinese merchants claim that they pay nearly 70 per cent of the import customs duties of the country, yet, under the new law, their chamber of commerce here is to be taxed $1000 gold a month, which will drive it out of existence.

The social and religious organizations are heavily taxed, the Chinese stores are restricted as to the class of goods they may sell, the members of the race are required to register frequently—and pay a fee each time—and other restrictions are placed almost upon their every move.

The Chinese claim that this is in direct violation of the Panamanian constitution which guarantees equal rights to the citizens of all nations. They also charge that when American Minister Dodge, acting on instructions from Washington, appealed to the Panama government he was promised that the laws would be made less drastic, but the matter was then allowed to rest.

The laws of Panama do not permit of a test of the constitutionality of any new law unless the President and his cabinet disagree on that law. There has been no disagreement on the Chinese situation.

The Chinese of Panama and of Central America are a thrifty, industrious lot. They never mix up in any of the political affairs of the nations and their dollars have done much to put many of these nations on a firmer financial footing. The credit of the Chinese merchants of Panama ranks very high with the wholesalers of the United States from whom they buy heavily.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

WOMAN KIDNAPS HER BABY, GOD FATHER IS MUCH WORRIED

Justice Cox's Arbitration Failed to Stick—Where is Mrs. Martinez?

Justice Cox may be a mighty good off-hand arbitrator in Mexican family affairs, but in one case his arrangements failed to stick. Some few weeks ago a small congregation of Mexicans went to his courtroom with their woes. It was not a case where the court had jurisdiction, and what the justice suggested was done in his personal capacity.

Jose Martinez of Artesia and his wife, Maria, had agreed to separate. Since then, the other wanted to have their 2-year-old baby. The justice suggested that the baby be turned over to Blas Lopez of Delhi, godfather of the baby. That was agreed to all around, and the Mexicans left well contented with the arrangements, especially as Martinez turned over $20 to his wife with which to buy herself some clothing.

Last Sunday Mrs. Martinez kidnapped her baby, and woman and baby have not been seen since. The child was taken from Lopez's home. Lopez and his daughter, a pretty seniorita, have told justice Cox that the mother has broken the agreement. He justice has explained that his suggestions were made in a personal capacity, not as an official. That is something the Mexicans cannot quite grasp. They think that Justice Cox ought to take a few days off, hunt up the woman, take the baby from her and turn it over to Lopez.

Justice Cox has passed the matter up to Probation Officer Scott, who will undertake the recovery of the baby only when the mother is located and when it is shown that she is unfit to have charge of her baby. Lopez is now trying to find the woman and the baby, and he hopes that the court will again put his god-child in his possession. With the Mexicans he duties that are imposed upon a "rod-parent" are sacred, and Lopez keenly feels his obligations. He wants any information concerning Mrs. Martinez sent immediately to Probation Officer Scott.

MOTORCYCLIST'S ANKLE IS CUT TO BONE IN COLLISION

Automobile Did Not Stop After Accident in Which Man Was Thrown

Claude F. Winkleplock of West Orange had a fall from his motorcycle last evening about 7 o'clock when his machine was struck by an automobile at the corner of North Main street and La Veta avenue. Winkleplock was going south on Main, and an automobile turned south off of La Veta. The two machines came together, and Winkleplock was thrown. He says the automobile did not stop. He received a cut to the bone on one ankle, and was somewhat bruised.

Another automobile came along and offered help. Winkleplock, however, mounted his motorcycle and chased the automobile that had struck him, hoping to catch it and find out whose it was. He failed to catch up with the automobile.

UNAVOIDABLE ACCIDENTS

Every now and then we hear of unavoidable accidents, frequently fatal in their consequences. So far as personal blame is concerned, most accidents are unavoidable. But in a larger sense, are any of them unavoidable? Are any of us free from blame?

We believe nearly if not quite all collision accidents are avoidable. But to insure against such accidents everybody must co-operate. There must be rules and laws AND THEY MUST BE OBEYED.

The most frequent and flagrant cause of collision accidents is too fast driving, whether it be auto, motorcycle, street car or railway train. The second most frequent and flagrant cause of such accidents is driving on the wrong side of the street, and "cutting" corners, which is equivalent to driving on the wrong side of the street.

There are many times when collision is unavoidable after its imminence becomes apparent, BUT IN MANY CASES IT WOULD NOT BE UNAVOIDABLE IF BOTH PARTIES WERE GOING SLOWER. And in all cases the results of collisions would be less disastrous if the vehicles collided with the lesser momentum attendant upon a lower rate of speed.

We believe that nine out of ten collisions are avoidable, prior to becoming apparently imminent, at an unlawful rate of speed by one or both participants and that at least seven out of ten could be avoided if the speed of both parties were well within legal limits. At ten or even fifteen miles an hour vehicles can be stopped or turned aside in time to avoid collision, but at twice these speeds it is frequently impossible to avoid a crash—the accident becomes "unavoidable."

But this kind or any kind of unavailability does not assuage the suffering, either physical or mental, of those who are parties to the accident. We would not add one iota to the mental suffering that must inevitably attend and remain with those who feel any measure of responsibility for fatal or maiming accidents to which they have been a party but not a victim; nor would we foster in the minds and hearts of those who are maimed or bereft any feelings of bitterness, or ill-will; but both parties and all people should ponder these things in their hearts for their own good and the good of the community.

To the credit of men and women in general be it said that nearly all of them are right at heart in these matters; they are simply thoughtless. And also be it said for those who participate in accidents, that usually the mental suffering of those who escape injury is equalled only by the physical suffering of those who are the physical victims, and these latter seldom bear any malice.

AN OBITUARY FOR ANYONE

Millions and millions and millions of them are born and live and die—over and over and over as the generations pass; not flies, or birds, but men and women. Men and women store their knowledge in speech which passes into tradition, and in writing that passes into wise and modern instances. The art of living wisely and well is known so well that even little children can go over by rote the simple maxims.

Yet few people live wisely or well. Most people think that maxims are for the fools. Most people think they are able to beat the game of life. Most people slyly try to slip around the ropes of good conduct set down by the wisdom of the ages.

So they fail. Life's failures are made by men and women who try to beat the game of life. Health, fortune, good name, happiness—the way to them is plain. It is all writ down in books, all in the common wisdom of the people. Yet these things are attained by few people. Millions and millions and millions of them are born and live and die—over and over and over as the generations pass—not flies or birds, but men and women who are as blind and foolish and miserable, and seem to be as incapable of learning the truth of life as though there were no human speech, no traditions, nor books.—William Allen White in California Outlook.

HOT WEATHER DEATH TO ALFALFA WORM

SPECIAL WASHINGTON LETTER

By Burton K. Standish.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—When ever Senator Ollie James of Kentucky wants a little recreation or wants to prepare an extraordinarily brilliant speech, he collects his constant "pal," Representative "Tom" Hefflin of Alabama, and takes a drive around the Petonaca Park speedway in a "sea-going hack."

James and Hefflin are the Damon and Pythias of congress. For years they have been practically inseparable, and many a bright afternoon after the house and senate have adjourned they are to be seen ambulating down Pennsylvania avenue for all the world like a couple of kids after school's out.

Senator James has the "sea-going hack" habit bad, which means that the same habit is among Hefflin's list. James takes to an open barouché—one of Washington's cherished institutions, respite the advent of the automobile—like a duck to aqua pura. And he always employs the same hackman, a grizzled Irishman named Mike, who prides himself on two things. First and foremost because he is Irish, and second because in his youth he fed his father's pigs on the refuse from the table of President Ulysses S. Grant. Mike is extremely and perhaps slightly snobbishly proud of the fact that he is the pet hackman of Senator James. But there is one buzzing fly in his otherwise ointment of bliss. Representative Hefflin isn't so heavy, but Senator James has enough aversus for several pen and the weight is a sore trial on the squeaky, antiquated hack and its protesting springs.

When Senator James was preparing his speech on sugar, in answer to Senator Russell's threatened bolt if the present sugar schedule was adopted with the tariff measure, he and Representative Hefflin drove about the speedway practically the entire night thrashing over what James was going to say. Of course they rode in Mike's hack.

When Senator James cannot get his constant companion, Hefflin, to ride with him—and since he has moved over to the senate from the house, the congressional Damon and Pythias cannot arrange their dates so well—Senator James curbs his secretary, James Richardson, about with him. Secretary Richardson, by the way is some sartorial secretary. He is sometimes called the "secretarial saint" by the members of the senate, and it is some sight to see Secretary Richardson most correctly dressed in high hat and English cutaway riding through the park beside his "boss" in Mike's hack.

While all this prohibition stuff is being handed out so freely, with Secretary of State Bryan boasting that he quaffs only grape juice, it is but meet that one other member of the Wilson cabinet be given his due. Attorney General McReynolds doesn't drink; he doesn't smoke; he doesn't chew, and it is said of him that he doesn't even indulge in anything near a swear word as President Wilson's going "out-tut." At the many banquets which the attorney general is a guest he always turns down his wine glasses. But he makes up on the mineral waters that are passed around.

President Wilson is rapidly becoming an ardent automobilist. As a matter of fact, it can be stated without fear of contradiction that he has become one. During the hot weather he takes a long automobile ride every afternoon and sometimes a second one in the evening after dinner.

The khaki-clad motorcycle policemen who used to follow the President's car have been banished. Instead, the secret service men have an automobile of their own in which they do their escorting and guarding. The President insisted that it was inhuman to order the motorcycle men to follow on those jumping, spitting machines and "take the dust" of his machine, "Jimmy" Sloan, in charge of the secret service operatives who guard the President, invariably rides with the President, except when the President decides to ride with the chauffeur, which he frequently does, thus breaking another one of those musty, moth-eaten, rusty precedents. He not only sits beside the chauffeur but he keeps up a running fire of conversation which isn't good to either party. It tends to distract their attention from the President Wilson says he must have some one to talk to—and so he does it.

Personally Conducted Campaign Against Rum

PORTLAND, Ore., July 16.—First having provided an adequate substitute for whiskey in the form of gift of twenty-five bubbling fountain for Portland, S. Benson, millionaire timberman, is today fairly launched on his project to wipe out, by constitutional amendment, every distillery in the United States.

Although he is a total abstainer himself, Mr. Benson does not propose to place this constitutional amendment restriction upon the manufacture of beer or wines, because of the honest difference of opinion prevailing among medical experts as to the harmful nature of these beverages. But declaring whiskey and kindred spirituous fluid poisons, he would stamp them out "as one would stamp out a poisonous serpent in the lane." For the preliminary work of wiping out whiskey, Mr. Benson has made an appropriation of $50,000, which he will draw on as heavily as is necessary.

"I have the money," said Benson today, "and I believe it my duty to use it for humanity. We have entered into this fight from the standpoint of economics. Religion does not enter into it at all. Our fight is a strictly business proposition, and will be conducted strictly on business lines.

The fight may take two years or ten. I personally have nothing to win or lose, but I have seen the misery which whiskey produces. I have seen bright, energetic men in my lumber camps become worthless simply through the appetite for drink.

"Information I have gathered shows that a billion dollars is annually spent over saloon bars for liquor bearing a high percentage of alcohol. Seventy million dollars is invested in the manufacturing end of this so-called industry. This is a sore that should be removed from our national economic life. State legislatures cannot do it. It rests upon the government to take the step."

Benson believes the plan he has tentatively mapped out will not prove too great a financial catastrophe upon the men engaged in the business. He proposes to allow them five years to go out of business after the amendment becomes a law.

For more than a year, he has had this idea in view. His counsel, E. E. Covert, of Portland, has been in Washington conferring with legislators and investigating further into the liquor question.

Mulhall's Amazing Story Bears Earmarks of Truth

[FROM THE SAN FRANCISCO BULLETIN.]

Colonel William M. Mulhall, the retired lobbyist of the National Association of Manufacturers, is not a reformer, and does not pretend to be. He has not offered the astonishing story of his activities for any moral purpose. But having in his possession some 12,000 letters and telegrams from his former employers and from many in public life, he disposed of his plant to the New York World and the Chicago Tribune for $10,000. These documents, together with his explanations, have been published in the two papers under copyright headings. While many of the Colonel's inferences may be doubted, the general story bears the earmarks of truth. Among other things highly probable is the evidence that a number of demagogues regularly elected to congress as friends of labor were actually in the the larvae disease, which is both contagious and fatal with the alfalfa caterpillar, is in full sway in the alfalfa fields of the valley, and the worms are speedily being stamped out for the present season at least, if, in fact, they are not being eradicated entirely.

The caterpillars sent some time ago from the Imperial Valley Horticultural Commission to the state office showed the disease in advanced stages and this condition was the occasion for the advice from Sacramento on the subject. Reports from several of the largest ranches in the valley are to the effect that the alfalfa worms are dying by the thousands from the effects of the disease.

ARIZONA POSTMASTER REFUSES TO RESIGN

WILLIAMS, Ariz., July 16.—Postmaster General Burleson got an emphatic no from Postmaster F. W. Smith of Williams when the latter received from Washington a peremptory request for his resignation.

"I'll stick until I am fired," said Smith. "Charges are pending against me and to resign would mean confession to charges of which I am not guilty."

Smith has many friends in Williams irrespective of party politics because of his efficiency in the postoffice. Ever since Wilson's election a number of Democrats have been after the job.

MRS. ROSENBERG GETS YEAR IN JAIL; FINE

LOS ANGELES, July 16.—Declaring Mrs. Emma Josephine Goodman, alias Mrs. Rosenberg, former proprietor of the Jontung Apartments, more dangerous to society than a burglar, Judge Oster yesterday sentenced her to serve one year in the county jail and to pay a fine of $1000. Mrs. Rosenberg entered a plea of guilty to a charge of contributing to the delinquency of Marie Brown Levy.

When the fine of $1000 was added to the sentence Mrs. Rosenberg conferred with L. Campa Davis, her attorney, who asked the court to remit the fine. Judge Oster declared he would be guided by the district attorney and Deputy District Attorney Keyes did not care to interfere and the sentence stood.

JUSTIFIES HIS LECTURING COURSE

Bryan Says He Gave Up Large

Income to Accept Government Post

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Secretary of State Bryan yesterday afternoon issued the following statement as an answer to the criticism of his lecturing while secretary of state, and his statement that he is unable to live on his salary as a cabinet officer, $12,000 a year:

"I am glad to have the criticism brought to my attention. I believe in criticism of public officials. Criticism is helpful. If a man makes a mistake, criticism enables him to correct it; if he is unjustly criticised the criticism helps him. I have had my share of criticism since I have been in public life, but it has not prevented my doing what I thought proper to do."

"In devoting a part of my vacation to lecturing, I am doing what I believe to be proper and I have no fear whatever that any unbiased person will criticize me when he knows the facts."

"For seventeen years the sources of my income have been writing and lecturing, but each year I have made more public speeches without compensation, and where I have paid my own traveling expenses, than I have where compensation has been received. My earning capacity has been large and I have made not only an income sufficient for my immediate needs, but have saved on an average something more than $10,000 a year. In accepting the office I now hold, I gave up the opportunity to add to my accumulations for I do not expect to increase, during my term, the amount I have laid aside—that is, I am willing to forego whatever advantage I might derive from acquiring of $10,000 more for the privilege of serving the country in this office during the coming four years."

"I will do more if necessary, but I do not believe that fair-minded people will ask of me. Therefore, until I see some reason for changing my purpose, I expect to earn enough to bring my income up to my expenses. These lectures to be delivered during the time that other officials give to their vacations."

His Washington friends estimate that Mr. Bryan's personal expenses and the expenses of his family here are about $20,000 a year, in addition to which, it is said, he has other family and business expenses which seriously impair his income.

DELIGHTFUL DAY

Anaheim W. C. T. U. Was Hostess to Other Unions of County

Those who accepted the kind invitation of the Anaheim W. C. T. U. were royally entertained at the home of Mrs. D. Gervais, the Anaheim union being hostess to all the unions of the county. Over 100 enjoyed the hospitality of the Mother Colony ladies. The day was ideal and the surroundings beautiful and a most delightful day was spent.

Anaheim's able president, Mrs. C. H. Owens, presided over the day's program and gave a very appropriate address of welcome which was responded to by Mesdames L. H. Mills, F. J. Rogers, Norman, Lea Warren, Shatto and a number of others.

The pleasant occasion was also the eighty-first birthday of one of the oldest members, Mrs. Kellogg, the mother of H. Clay Kellogg of Santa Ana. Greetings from the guests were extended and a large bouquet of beautiful hydrangeas was presented to Mrs. Kellogg, who graciously responded.

At noon a very bountiful and substantial luncheon was served at the home of Mrs. Kellogg, the mother of H. Clay Kellogg of Santa Ana. The large pepper trees in the yard. An enjoyable social hour and a half were spent in conversation and in doing justice to the delicious food.

In the afternoon the guests assembled on the spacious front porch where they listened to a very interesting program. The state officers were expected to be present at this meeting but owing to the large prohibition meetings to be held in Los Angeles for the next three days, were unable to attend. The Orange county ladies ably rose to the occasion however, and the program given by them was certainly instructive and interesting. Mrs. Harry Hanson sang a solo and Miss Gladys Gervais and Miss Galloway each gave excellent readings. Very interesting addresses were given by Mrs. Anna Hill on "The Training of Children During the Adolescent Period," and by Mrs. J. N. Anderson on "My Experiences at the State Legislature."

Mrs. Anderson's talk was very instructive, telling, as it did, of the bills passed at the recent session in the interests of the women and children. Mrs. Norman of Santa Ana spoke on "The Teaching of Temperance in the Schools," which proved to be very interesting.

At the close of the program a vote of thanks was given to the Anaheim union and to Mrs. Gervais for their kind hospitality in inviting the unions of the county.

The children—four sons and four daughters—were Messrs. John, Homer, David and Ray Wickerd, all of whom reside in Riverside county, and the four daughters were Mrs. Libbie Holcomb of Los Angeles, Mrs. Alice Walker of Menifee, Mrs. Winona Sinclair of Glendale, and Mrs. Mary Thorne of Murietta.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Barnett of Temecula, cousins of the bride, were among the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Rolfe and guests made the trip in their automobile, going by way of the Santa Ana and Temecula canyons to Elsinore, where they stopped for luncheon and vainly endeavored to find a cool place to rest after the long ride in the intense heat. Continuing on to Murietta, they called upon some relatives and friends, arriving Friday evening at the home of Mr. Stevens' daughter, Mrs. Eli Barnett, of Temecula.

The return journey was through Elsinore canyon, Perris, Riverside, Pomona and the beautiful town of Brea and Brea canyon. The entire trip was delightful and the occasion one of rare occurrence.

LOS ANGELES COUNTY'S WEALTH OVER $800,000,000

LOS ANGELES, July 16.—The total wealth of Los Angeles county in operative and non-operative property is assessed at $800,000,000, according to the figures made public yesterday by Edward W. Hopkins, county assessor, at an informal discussion of the matter with the supervisors.

The final announcement is yet to be made, but the assessor assured the supervisors that the figures would not be materially changed.

According to the figures at hand the assessment on non-operative property, on which the county tax rate is based, is $650,000,000. This is a gain of about $55,000,000 over last year. The assessment on operative property shows a gain of $29,000,000 over last year.

Mr. Hopkins stated that the raise in the assessment was almost entirely confined to the city, where the advance in property values has been great.

Official figures will be ready within a few days.

ROOSEVELT PARTY STRUCK BY STORM

WILLIAMS, Ariz., July 16.—Shortly after noon yesterday and just after the Colorado river on the way to Bad Lands for a hunting trip, the Roosevelt party, consisting of Theodore Roosevelt, his sons, Archie and Quentin, Guides S. Husted, Fleming and Buffalo Jones, and four packers and eight mules, were struck by a terrific electrical storm.

The storm broke suddenly within fifteen minutes after the party started up Bright Angel canyon, a narrow gorge, without rocks, trees or shrubbery of any kind. Nothing had been heard from the party when the train left Grand Canyon at 8 o'clock last night.

Captain Hance and W. W. Bass, famous guides and for thirty years residents of Grand Canyon, say the storm was one of the fiercest ever known there. They believed, however, owing to the splendid outfit and experienced guides, the party would weather the storm safely.

ENGSTROM DIVORCED IN FIFTEEN MINUTES

LOS ANGELES, July 16.—Paul Engstrom, son of E. O. Engstrom, the contractor, secured a divorce in fifteen minutes today from Helen Davis Engstrom. CHANCE FOR ANOTHER PROTEST FROM TOKIO

EAST ORANGE, N. J., July 16.—The East Orange Board of Education has declined to permit Kinoko Yorita, a Japanese butler, to become a pupil at the high school. He is 21 years old, and on that ground the board bases its refusal. Yorita works for the Rev. Dr. Denis Workman and has enlisted the sympathy of his employer in his behalf. The pupils at the high school belong to wealthy families and the Board of Education is accused of discrimination in barring Yorita.

Boiled Salmon Steak

Boil a pint of broth or water with a small bunch of celery, half a teaspoonful of salt, quarter teaspoonful of pepper and a tablespoonful of vinegar. Cut the steaks in suitable pieces and put the fragments and bones in the boiling liquid. Place the salmon in a clean saucepan and strain the seasoned broth over it; cover and let boil briskly for ten minutes. Serve in a deep dish with the liquid instead of sauce. The full flavor and the richness of the fish are preserved in this dish.

Incubator No Miracle Worker

Do not expect your incubator, no matter of what make or of what cost, to perform impossibilities. Then see that your eggs to fill are fresh and have been well handled. Eggs should be from stock that is strong and vigorous, and free from disease. One cannot expect good hatches from eggs laid by hens that have been weakened by rump or kindred troubles.

NEARLY READY FOR SIGNERS

Petition For Paving North Main North of Bridge Has Already Been Prepared

When the Pacific Electric definitely determines whether or not it is going to retain its franchise for a double track on North Main street north of the Santiago creek bridge, the property owners on that section of street will begin signing for paving.

In fact, the petition has already been prepared, and several of the property owners are waiting for a chance to sign it. The petition, however, will not be circulated until the Pacific Electric lets it be known whether it is going to hold a double track franchise or a single track franchise. The property owners do not care what the P. E. decides, but they want a decision at once.

At present there is a single track along that part of the street, but the franchise calls for a double track. The P. E. must pave its portion of the street under the franchise. It is said that P. E. officials have given verbal notice of its intention to hold the single track franchise only, but no formal waiver of the double track franchise has ever been made.

Today Max L. Huberman, the street paving contractor, went to Los Angeles to present the matter to the P. E., and if possible get a settlement of the P. E. franchise matter at once. Before Huberman started he and S. J. Jackson, one of the property owners on the street, held a conference upon the matter.

Board of Supervisors

PROMISE FORM PROTECTION DISTRICT

Four Members of Board Agree to Build Bridge When Channel is Fixed

YESTERDAY MET
ANAHEIM COMMITTEE

Supervisors Think it Would Be Foolish to Build Under Present Conditions

A protection district is to be formed for the purpose of establishing a channel and building banks for the Santa Ana river from the Santa Fe bridge at Yorba to a point south of the Anaheim-Olive road near Olive. When the channel is established the Board of Supervisors will build a concrete bridge across the river on the Anaheim-Olive road.

This is the gist of an agreement reached yesterday on the Olive bridge between Supervisors Talbert, Struck, Leck and Schumacher, representing the county, and J. W. Duckworth, Henry Kuchel and F. C. Krause, a committee of Anaheim citizens.

There is no question but what the bridge at Olive is in bad fix and ought to be replaced by either a concrete or a steel structure. That is conceded by every member of the Board of Supervisors. But the channel of the river at that point is such that the location of a bridge would be mere guess-work, and with the possibility of having the channel changed by any flood the supervisors could not see that it would be at all wise to build the bridge at this time.

A few months ago an effort was made to remedy the difficulty. The Anaheim men who realize the dangers from the river and who are anxious to have the Olive bridge built started out to form a protection district under a plan to establish a channel and dikes for the river from Yorba to West Orange, joining on to the channel and dikes of the Newbert Protection District. The boundaries of this district were bitterly opposed, with the result that the plan was dropped.

Yesterday it was proposed to try another plan, this time to form a smaller protection district with the idea of building just enough river channel and dikes to protect the Anaheim section and to provide a definite channel for the river at the point where it is proposed to build the bridge. That will mean the improvement of about a mile and a half of the river, from the Santa Fe bridge north of Olive to the wagon bridge west of Olive.

Duckworth, Kuchel and Krause promised to get busy with the project at once, and the supervisors promised to build the bridge as soon as the channel is established.

It was pointed out that at the present time the channel followed by the water this winter is two and a half feet higher than the so-called west bank of the river 600 feet away.

While Supervisor Smith was unable to be present at the conference held on the Olive bridge yesterday, it is understood that he concurs in the stand taken by the other members of the board.

EQUALIZATION BOARD VIEWING THE IRVINE RANCH

✱ This morning at 9 o'clock the five members of the board of equalization went out in automobiles to look over portions of the San Joaquin ranch. The inspection is made as a part of equalization and as a board of the hearing granted the Irvine Co. on its petition for a lower assessment, particularly on the main valley lands. The board is accompanied by County Assessor Sleeper, who contends that the assessment on the valley lands should not be changed and that the assessment on the ranch's hill property should be raised. William Mitchell, assistant superintendent of the ranch, is representing the Irvine Co. Superintendent Krauss having gone to Ventura on business.

NO BIDS FOR SCHOOL BONDS

Los Angeles Buyers Say That the Money Market is Badly
"Shot Up"

Yesterday when the time arrived for the sale of the $50,000 bond issue of the Tustin school district not a single bid was on hand. The bonds are gilt-edged—no question about that—and the rate of interest is five per cent. The trouble is not in the bonds, but it is in the market.

At least that is what the Los Angeles bond-buyers, who ordinarily are eager to get any kind of valid Orange county school bonds, give as their reason for not bidding for the bonds. Their report to County Clerk Williams, who sent them notices of the time for opening bids was that the "money market is all shot up."

The matter has been taken up among the local bankers, and there is good reason to believe that the bonds will be sold soon. The matter was continued until July 22, on the motion of Supervisor Leck, who is much interested in the sale of the bonds for the Tustin district, in which he lives.

To Buy Motors
The County Highway Commission was yesterday given authority to buy electric motors to be used in the rock-crushing and gravel plant at McPherson. This plant is being put into shape as rapidly as possible.

Map Is Accepted
A map of Laguna Cliffs was accepted yesterday by the supervisors, except as to county roads.

Hearing Continued
The hearing of the viewers of the D. E. Rydell road in the Tustin road district was continued to July 22, to which date the supervisors adjourned.

BASTANCHURY RANCH COMPANY HEARING IS TOMORROW AFTERNOON

The Board of Equalization has set 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon for the hearing on the petition of the Bastanchury Ranch Company for a change in the assessment of its property in the north end of the county. The ranch company does not object to the amount of the assessment, but asserts that the oil interests should have been assessed to the Union Oil Company and Maria Bastanchury instead of to the ranch company. The Union Oil Company has been cited to appear to show cause why the assessment should not be made to it.

ANOTHER DEFENDER OF BAY CITY SEALS

Today the Board of Supervisors received another letter declaring in favor of protecting the seals of Bay City, sometimes known as Seal Beach.
Just recently the value of the seals as advertising material seems to have been realized, and now all those interested in Bay City section are strong for the seals. Letters declaring opposition to the proposal to make it lawful to kill seals have been received by the board. Today one was received from Guy M. Rush Company of Los Angeles.

GERMAN SCIENTIST CHAMPIONS KISSING

BERLIN, July 16.—In a long article, carefully prepared months ago, and printed in a local publication today,
Professor Adolph Paskau of Breslau strongly champions kissing. "Far from being harmful," says the noted savant, "kissing may soothe the nerves, and have a really beneficial effect, physiologically." This pleasing note in the article is based, says the savant, on experiments. He doesn't say if the experiments were personal ones. "Humanity has survived kissing ten thousand years," the article continues, "and it will survive many more ten thousand, if the world lasts that long. It is doubtful if any one ever contracted tuberculosis through kissing—at least not in Germany."

MANAGEMENT IS BLAMED FOR WRECK

Coroner's Jury Exonerates Trainmen—Company to Install Block Signals

LOS ANGELES, July 16.—The coroner's jury yesterday afternoon rendered a verdict on the Sunday night wreck at Vineyard in which fourteen lives were lost, criticizing the Pacific Electric Railway management for not properly protecting the lives of passengers. Motorman Forster was exonerated of blame.

The verdict found that the trains were operated at too short intervals
during the hours of heavy traffic;
that inexperienced men were employed who were not familiar with the operating rules; that the rules were not observed; and that the block system should be installed.

Late last night President Paul Shoup of the Pacific Electric Company issued a statement announcing that automatic block signals would be installed at once on the Venice-Short Line. Until the arrival of the electric equipment for the system,
the signals will be operated manually.

Five members of the coroner's jury signed the report. They were George A. Montgomery, foreman; C. W. Damerel, Edward Purcell, W. A. Herd-man and S. S. McKinney. G. Mills, the sixth member of the jury, could not agree to the verdict and said he would submit his verdict this morning. It is understood that he found Flanagan Bartholomew at fault, but that his verdict will not differ materially from that of the majority.

The verdict signed by five members of the jury and the coroner was:
"We find that the railway company are not qualified by proper experience to safeguard the public, not being familiar with the rules laid down for their guidance. We would recommend that the railway company be compelled to adopt a safe and proper block system."

CHAMP CLARK ALSO HARD UP

Speaker Says He Must Keep Busy Talking in Order to Make Ends Meet

ST. LOUIS, July 16.—A day after the announcement by Secretary of State William Jennings Bryan that he was forced back into the Chautauqua Circuit lecture rostrum to make up the deficit in his salary of $12,000 a year as a cabinet officer and the expense of living in Washington, comes a letter from Speaker Champ Clark explaining why he cannot address the Good Roads Convention in St. Louis next November. Speaker
Clark also draws $12,000 a year salary and mileage.

To Thomas L. Cannon, managing director of the Good Roads Association and secretary of the St. Louis Convention Bureau, Clark says in his letter:

"I would be delighted to be with you at your good roads meeting in November, but it is utterly impossible. The only way I have of making any money is by lecturing and occasionally writing for the magazines. Five or six months ago, taking it for granted that Congress would certainly adjourn by October 1, I sold eight weeks in October and November to a lecture bureau."

It is less than two weeks since the newspapers published a story of how Speaker Clark declined to stand a raise of $50 on the rent of his Washington home and moved out.

The preference of Speaker Clark for the lecture platform as contrasted with speechmaking is explained by a remark he made in St. Louis a year ago, when he said the difference between a lecture and a political speech was that the former was paid for and the latter was donated to the good of the cause, the donor paying his own expenses.

Prove Efficiency of The Tuberculin Test

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, good business policy for the farmer to find out, by applying the tuberculin test, how many of his cows are affected with tuberculosis. The animals which react and which are, therefore, known to be tubercular, can then be separated from the rest of the herd, the healthy animals kept in barns, yards and pastures, never used by tubercular cattle, and all tubercular animals placed where they cannot infect healthy stock. The spread of the disease can thus be prevented. Calves born from cows that have tuberculosis can be raised as perfectly healthy animals if separated from the mother immediately after birth and never allowed to drink a tubercular cow's milk, unless this milk from a tubercular animal has been heated to at least 160 degrees and allowed to cool gradually before being fed. In cases where the test shows that more than half the cows in a herd have tuberculosis, a new herd should be built up with new-born calves, none of the older cattle of the herd, not even those that did not react, being mixed in.

The farmer who is trying to get rid of the disease is advised by the University never to bring a newly-bought animal into a healthy herd unless it has been shown by the tuberculin test to be healthy. Dairy sanitation is in one respect simpler in California than in many other parts of the United States, viz., ventilation, since the cows can live out-of-doors most of the time. Even among cattle kept under out-of-door conditions tuberculosis is common. Even in range cattle the disease seems to be increasing.

The value of dairy cattle in California in 1910 was estimated by the United States government at $17,000,000, of other cattle at $22,000,000, and the number of cattle in California was estimated at 1,573,000. These figures show the importance of the problem to the state.

A law has now been passed prohibiting importation of stock into California unless tested by a trained veterinarian. In Denmark and in Wisconsin the disease is being held in check. Several of the states now provide for free tuberculin testing of dairy herds upon application. The College of Agriculture finds a growing feeling among California dairymen that state control of bovine tuberculosis by frequent inspections and the compulsory elimination of physical cases would pay the livestock industry in a commercial way, by limiting the spread of the disease.

The State Veterinarian of California has done valuable service toward the control of the disease by arranging to test dairy herds without expense to the owners, if the owners will co-operate by agreeing to slaughter the animals condemned, or else to segregate the diseased from the healthy animals and agree to use milk from diseased animals only after it has been sterilized. To June 30, 1912, 106 herds had been thus tested, including 3142 animals. Of these, 598 were found to be tubercular, and were segregated. This university conference is expected to result in useful suggestions as to further work, and an increased realization among livestock owners of the direct money value to the cattle-growers of California of joining in the movement to eliminate this costly disease.

SAN BERNARDINO COUNTY GOES DRY

SAN BERNARDINO, July 16.—The desert and every other district of the county except incorporated cities will go dry October 1. The new liquor ordinance was adopted by the county supervisors yesterday afternoon by a vote of four to one.

The ordinance provides for the issuance of licenses to wineries to sell wine in not less than two-gallon quantities. Supervisor Butler asked that the desert liquor interests have at least ninety days to clear out their stocks without heavy financial loss and suggested that the Wythe law granted such concession, but the majority of the members were against the proposal.

The licenses which were issued to the saloonmen of Needles and Victorville several weeks ago will hold good until revoked by the present ordinance when it goes into effect, Oct. 1. Needles and other desert towns probably will incorporate and there is talk among the liquor men of invoking an initiative ordinance.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

Owing principally to larger receipts of local stock there was a decline of 1 cent in quotations on creamery extra butter yesterday. Generally considered the market is pretty steady and will probably show a marked advance in a few weeks. Considerable eastern butter is received, although the supply is believed to be a little short of last year at this time because shippers are holding back in anticipation of the advent of large quantities of Australian butter next winter. Some eastern stock has gone into consumption.

Cheese strengthened a little in spots. California fresh, eastern and Tillamook dairies were the varieties affected. Eggs were firm.

Casabas were in better supply, and prices were reduced. Cantaloupes are now plentiful, although the light demand has forced a small decline in prices in some instances. Watermelons are still in good supply.

There are no particular changes in fruit prices, but an easier feeling was apparent in the market. All kinds of plums are very much in evidence. Peaches are becoming more plentiful. Apricots vary considerably in quality.

The market on tomatoes, cucumbers and other fresh vegetables is weak. Tomatoes were offered as low as 10 cents a crate.

Prices of gasoline, engine distillate and naphtha have declined.

Strictly home made bread and pastry. Delivered. Call Murphy, 4923.

MAKE SYRUP FROM CULLS

New Process Perfected Which Citrus Men Hope Will Revolutionize Industry

POMONA, July 16.—Lemon growers in this district have become very much interested in the proposed erection of a plant at San Dimas to manufacture a by-product of the culls and surplus lemons. This by-product is a concentrated syrup in a form that, it is said, can be kept any length of time.

The process is not patented but is held a trade secret. For some time the government and the Citrus Protective League experts have been at work upon it and it is declared practical.

A. B. Evans and G. H. Deacon of Los Angeles were in San Dimas this week, making a thorough investigation of the sites for a factory and the amount of fruit available in a normal year. It was stated that there was a question whether to establish the plant in Los Angeles and ship in the lemons or whether to establish the plant in the center of the citrus growing district.

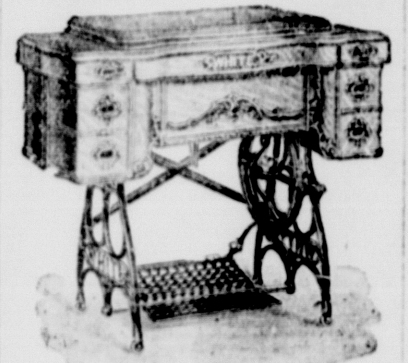

By the process the juice of the lemon is concentrated to a thick syrup containing 32 per cent lemon juice and 8 per cent sugar. As a result of the concentration the juice from thirty fair sized lemons can be contained in a four ounce bottle.

What has interested the citrus growers particularly is the fact that not only are all culls available for the process at good prices, but when the crop is heavy and prices are low better returns can be secured than from the glutted market. It is said that the process is equally practical for oranges. It accomplishes that which has hitherto been impossible—the production of a fruit juice which will keep indefinitely.

Should the entire proposition prove a success citrus growers state that it will mean the greatest step in advancement that the industry has ever known. It removes all danger of decay, expense of storage, freight charges and other incidentals experienced in handling the fruit.

It is further stated that even frost-killed fruit, as long as it carries a small percentage of juice, is available to the process. Profits would be assured for every crop.

Save $200 when you build your next house

In these days there is no more use for chimneys to a house than a fifth wheel to a wagon. You either break up the contour of rooms to accommodate inside chimneys or put a smear of brick on the outside. Chimneys cost money. Then you build sheds to house the fuel. You can save $200 or more on any sort of a house by cutting out this expense and using gas.

Suppose you save only $200 on that new house. That $200 would buy you a kitchen range, two or three gas heaters, and other gas appliances to the extent of $50 and the other $150 would pay for the gas used for four or five years. Gas is the modern manner for heating, cooking and lighting, and the time is coming when chimneys in a house will be obsolete. Nine-tenths of the heat goes up the chimney—some of the smoke and most of the dirt gets into the room.

A Gas Range Needs No Chimney

Telephone 265 and one of our salesmen will call and tell you all about the efficiency and economy—time-saving and money-saving—of this wonderful gas range bargain. This range has an 18-inch oven, a giant burner and three small burners and a simmerer—use these various burners intelligently and you can greatly reduce the cost of living.

WILL STRENGTHEN ITS DEFENSE IN THE CARIBBEAN

England to Make Extensive Naval Changes as Result of Canal Opening

LONDON, July 16.—An extensive program of improvements of naval stations and defenses in the West Indies, in view of the proximity of the opening of the Panama canal, was unofficially published here today. All the principal British harbors in the Caribbean, it was learned today, have already been surveyed in order to furnish material for a comprehensive scheme of defense which the admiralty and the war office are now jointly considering. Among the recommendations already adopted is one for the establishment of a large coaling and oil-bunkering station for the exclusive use of British war ships at Castries Harbor, St. Lucia. It is likely also that the plan of the Colonial government, prepared several years ago, for a similar fuel depot in Carlisle Bay, Barbadoes, but which was not carried out for lack of funds, will now be undertaken by the admiralty.

Recently the Jamaican authorities bought a large site abutting the harbor of Kingston in order to deal with an extra demand for coaling, docking or repairing facilities. It is understood that the government's scheme includes also the creation of a naval base at Fanning Island on the Pacific side.
